

Test One: Our Attitude toward the Word of God

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Heard God's Word I have been aware of hearing from God's Word during a worship service.
- Read God's Word I have read God's Word during my personal devotions as I have sought to progress systematically through the Bible.
- Believed God's Word I have trusted and relied upon God's Word in a specific recent situation.
- Obedied God's Word I have applied specific verses from God's Word to a certain situation.
- Memorized God's Word I have memorized some new verses from God's Word.
- Studied God's Word I have studied in-depth of a specific portion of God's Word.
- Meditated upon God's Word I have sought to meditate upon a certain section of God's Word.
- Taught God's Word I have taught a certain group God's Word.
- Preached God's Word I had an opportunity to preach God's Word to a specific group.
- Journalized God's Word I have journalized God's Word in a notebook in which I keep track of Scriptures in which the Lord has spoken to me.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God's Word? _____ points

Test Two: Our Attitude toward the Wealth of Others

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Been Content I am satisfied with the way God financially provides.
- Trusted the Lord Confidently trusted that God would provide in His timing
- Clarity in Decision-Making The deceitfulness of riches has not clouded my thinking in major decisions.
- Grown Spiritually Materialism has not hindered my spiritual growth.
- Been Satisfied with my Wages I have been content with my wages.
- Experienced Freedom I have not been envious of the wealth and prosperity of others.
- Resisted Financial Traps I have not been deceived by commercials and salesman's pitches.
- Maintained the Right Attitude I have not murmured nor complained about my finances.
- Not Felt Trapped I have not felt in bondage by my financial situation.
- Not Been Shamed by my Possessions I am willing to depart with my "things" to help others in need.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God's Word? _____ points

Test Three: Our Attitude toward the Works of God

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Served the Lord I have served the Lord in a ministry opportunity under the leadership of the Holy Spirit and in His power.
- Helped the destitute I ministered through my faith to someone in a difficult situation.
- Assisted the Lord I am involved in an on-going, specific ministry organization.
- Worked for the Lord I serve in an official capacity with a Christian ministry.
- Been victorious when tested I recently faced a test of my faith and demonstrated my confession to Christ through my convictions.
- Testified of my faith My faith is more than just talk as demonstrated in stressful events in my life.
- Witnessed for the Lord If others were to examine my faith, they would see my faith lived out in years of Christian service.
- Maintained balance I can honestly say that my talk and my walk are consistent with each other.
- Overcame temptation I overcame a fleshly temptation by my faith in the Lord.
- Upheld my faith I daily seek to apply Christian principles and convictions in following God's will as I face temptations and tests.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God's Word? _____ points

Test Four: Our Attitude toward the Words of our Mouth

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Disclosed some confidentiality I have betrayed another's trust by letting some confidentiality slip from my mouth.
- Used a slanderous word I have slandered someone's reputation by degrading that person's character.
- Let slip a derogatory comment I have carelessly referred to someone else by the use of a derogatory word (the "N" word or terms such as "girl" or "boy" when referring to an adult, the "B" word, etc.)
- Called into question my confession of Christ I yielded to a situation in which I responded contrary to my verbal confession of Christ.
- Spoken out of turn I misspoke and conveyed the idea that something was truthful when I knew in my heart that it was not so.
- Concealed my testimony I cowardly chose silence over the opportunity to bear witness of my faith in Christ.
- Confused myself and others by my speech I have sought to bless God on Sunday, only to curse others on the other days of the week.
- Lacked consistency By my angry speech, I have verbally belittled or abused a spouse or a friend.
- Displayed poor decision-making I expressed myself in the misuse of flattery in order to gain someone's approval.
- Controlled by actions I have come to realize that my mouth (tongue) controls me instead of my controlling my mouth.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God's Word? _____ points

Test Five: Our Attitude toward the Wisdom from Above

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Demonstrated wisdom I have shown wisdom by my making sound judgments concerning major decisions in my life.
- Discerned the scams in commercials I am not a “sucker” for the “come-ons” of public commercials.
- Seriously studied the Word of God I have become mentally wise through by consistent study of God’s Word.
- Rejected a secular worldview I am not split in my mind between a biblical worldview and a secular worldview.
- Lived consistently by my convictions When others see my lifestyle and my choices in life, they see me applying wisdom from above.
- Overcame various deterrents to wisdom I have overcome an argumentative attitude and have sought to become teachable.
- Sought to be informed I have sought to become informed concerning national and regional events that might bring on an emergency.
- Related a good attitude toward others My wisdom is demonstrated on how I relate to my family and others.
- Considered wise by others Other people have sought me out for my advice in the midst of a crisis in their life.
- Prepared for the crisis Having taken definite steps of action in preparing for an imminent crisis that may impact my life and that of my family, I believe I can truly say I am mentally prepared for a crisis.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God’s Word? _____ points

Test Six: Our Attitude toward the World of Compromise

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Been considered knowledgeable concerning prayer I have studied prayer and am conscious of the biblical hindrances to effective praying. (If you checked yes, name at least four:)
- Overcame a crisis through prayer I have sought to overcome the personal hindrances of prayer in order to be an intercessor for others in the midst of their crisis.
- Been victorious over unfulfilled desires I know of instances when I have been victorious over the lack of fulfillment to my desires.
- Rejected a compromising situation I overcame a compromising situation in my personal life.
- Conquered worldliness Although there have been worldly temptations around me, I have resisted these in order to live a separated lifestyle before God.
- Submitted to God Even though I struggled with God’s Will in an area of my life, in the end, I submitted to God.
- Resisted the Devil I knowingly resisted the Devil and his temptations.
- Sought to get clean In my quiet time, I have spent time seeking to get clean through a confession sin list.
- Become humble by elevating others I overcame an opportunity to publicly criticize a fellow Christian.
- Lived before the Eternal Judge I have sought to maintain a perspective of one day appearing before the Eternal Judge to give an account of my life.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God’s Word? _____ points

Test Seven: Our Attitude toward the Work of our Hands

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Sought to be fair I have sought to be fair with all those who have labored for me, including waiters/waitresses, business dealings, and purchases.
- Genuinely sought out God's will In decisions of my life, I have sought out God's will prior to arriving at any conclusions.
- Taken into consideration God's timing I have not presumed upon the tomorrows or the years ahead but have realized that my life is short lived here on earth.
- Wrestled with life's great questions I have spent time considering questions such as, What is life? What is death? What is God's purpose for my life?
- Understood the good that God has for me I have understood that God has a purpose for each life and I have understood His specific purpose for my life.
- Have righteously gained my income I have not cheated or defrauded someone in my business dealings.
- Evaluated my "treasures" I have realized that my so-called treasures are only momentary and I believe I could live without them if they were taken from me.
- Placed my trust in God I have not trusted in my gold, silver, riches, garments, or fields for emotional security.
- Demonstrated my confidence in God I honestly believe that the Lord will hear my cries should they be cries of desperation and need.
- Truly gained confidence that I am ready for the end I believe I am ready to face the Lord of Sabaoth in judgment.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God's Word? _____ points

Test Eight: Our Attitude toward the Welfare of Others

In the last 6 months, I have (place a check mark in the box [☑] next to the action verb:

- Sought to be patient I have sought not to lose my cool or temper during the times of stress.
- Intentionally prepared for the coming crisis Over these months, I have taken practical steps to prepare for the coming crisis.
- Sought opportunities to forgive I have genuinely sought out opportunities not only to be forgiven, but especially to forgive others.
- Maintained verbal integrity In my conversations with others, I have maintained verbal honesty and integrity.
- Worked through some of my hang-ups I have honestly worked through and found victory over some of my emotional and mental problems.
- Sought out extensive time of prayer Through my own physical illnesses, I have learned to be effective in intercession for others.
- Examined my faults I have examined and overcome my faults and failures in such a way that I have made progress in my walk with the Lord.
- Demonstrated my faith in specific situations In applying God's will to my life, I have demonstrated faith in practical and specific situations.
- Counseled someone who was in error I counseled some one who was in spiritual error and have genuinely maintained intercession for that person.
- Gained from the Book of James I believe I have gained from the Book of James both for myself and for others as we face the coming trials and temptations.

For each area checked off, give yourself a single point. How many total points do you have in this test of God's Word? _____ points