

On Journey with God!

Migdol – the First Stopping Place: Salvation

Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.... And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: Exodus 14:2, 13

The Lord had saved the Israelites from judgment through the shed blood of the lamb at Passover. Their march out of Egypt had begun! But then God ordered their march to stop at what appeared to be an impossible situation – between Migdol and the sea! The sea was before them; the Egyptian sword was behind them! Why did God have them stop? Because the first step in their journey—and our journey—is to experience salvation! We too are on a progressive journey with God that involves three specific areas of intimacy with Him!

A. Personal Allegiance to God

B. Practical Obedience to God

C. Purposeful Experience of God

God has so ordained things that all experiences on earth can be dated and measured! The progress of our journey needs to be measured. Paul says that he pressed toward the mark (Philippians 3:14).

- Time measures our spiritual history
- Places measure our spiritual geography
- People measure our spiritual fellowship
- Positions measure our spiritual activity
- Devotions measure our spiritual intimacy
- Books measure our spiritual literacy
- Changes measure our spiritual maturity
- Suffering measures our spiritual fidelity

I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. Philippians 3:14
